DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-9 and 15-16 are drawn to a birefringence measuring apparatus in which birefringence of a sample is measured on the basis of a Stokes parameter from a Stokes meter, classified in class 356, subclass 364.
 - II. Claim 10 is drawn to a birefringence measuring apparatus in which birefringence of a sample is measured on the basis of detected values at a plurality of light receiving portions, classified in class 356, subclass 364.
 - III. Claim 11 is drawn to a birefringence measuring apparatus in which birefringence of a sample is measured on the basis of light passed through at least one polarizer and at least one phase-difference plate, classified in class 356, subclass 364.
 - IV. Claim 12 is drawn to a birefringence measuring apparatus in which birefringence of a sample is measured without rotating the sample and at least one polarizer, classified in class 356, subclass 364.
 - V. Claim 13 is drawn to a birefringence measuring apparatus in which only a circular polarization component is detected by a light receiving portion through a phase-difference plate and a polarizer is used for measuring birefringence, classified in class 356, subclass 364.
 - VI. Claim 14 is drawn to a birefringence measuring apparatus in which a fourth light beam having the same polarization state as the output light from the sample is incident on a phase-difference plate and a polarizer is used for measuring birefringence, classified in class 356, subclass 364.

Art Unit: 2877

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I, II, III, IV, V and VI are directed to related products. The related inventions are distinct if the inventions as claimed do not overlap in scope, i.e., are mutually exclusive; the inventions as claimed are not obvious variants; and the inventions as claimed are either not capable of use together or can have a materially different design, mode of operation, function, or effect. See MPEP § 806.05(j). In the instant case, the inventions of Groups I-VI are directed to a birefringence measuring apparatus or method, but each having a different inventive structure for detection and calculation for measuring birefringence.

3. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
